PRESIDENT’S CORNER

Hi Everyone

Here it’s September already and it’s time to start planning for our Halloween and Christmas Parties.

Morris did a great job with his Root Beer Float Night. Everyone enjoyed the root beer floats. I appreciate all he does for the club. He takes care of the money, makes all the flyers, banners, and badges for us. Thank you Morris for all you do for us.

We had a great do-it-yourself-Pizza-Party on Saturday August 25th at Eric and Jacky’s house. We got to make our own pizza with all the things we love to eat and watch Eric cook them in his wood fired pizza oven. Eric and Jacky, thank you for all your help.

To finish off the month we had our free fifth Friday Hot August Night Dance. We had a great turnout for the dance. I want to thank Doris Smith for doing the Square Dance Clothes sale for us. It is a lot of work to set up the racks and put out the clothes and then tear it all down after the dance. We had very low sales this time and I needed to borrow a truck and load the racks and clothes into the truck bring them to the dance and unload them. After the dance we loaded them back into the truck and haul them home and put them back into storage.

Anna Mary Robertson "Grandma" Moses

September 7, 1860 – December 13, 1961

Anna Mary Robertson Moses, known by her nickname Grandma Moses, was an American folk artist. She began painting in earnest at the age of 78 and is often cited as an example of an individual who successfully began a career in the arts at an advanced age. Her works have been shown and sold in the United States and abroad and have been marketed on greeting cards and other merchandise. Moses' paintings are displayed in the collections of many museums. Sugaring Off was sold for US $1.2 million in 2006. Moses appeared on magazine covers, television, and in a documentary of her life. She wrote an autobiography (My Life's History), won numerous awards, and was awarded two honorary doctoral degrees.

The New York Times said of her: "The simple realism, nostalgic atmosphere and luminous color with which Grandma Moses portrayed simple farm life and rural countryside won her a wide following. She was able to capture the excitement of winter's first snow, Thanksgiving preparations and the new, young green of oncoming spring... In person, Grandma Moses charmed wherever she went. A tiny, lively woman with mischievous gray eyes and a quick wit, she could be sharp-tongued with a sycophant and stern with an errant grandchild.

When she was 27, she worked on the same farm with Thomas Salmon Moses, a "hired man." They were married and established themselves near Staunton, Virginia where they spent nearly two decades, living and working in turn on four separate local farms. —Five of the ten children born to them survived infancy. Although she loved living in the Shenandoah Valley, in 1905 Anna and Robert moved to a farm in Eagle Bridge, New York at her husband's urging. When Thomas Moses was about 67 years of age in 1927, he died of a heart attack, after which Anna's son Forrest helped her operate the farm. Anna Moses never married again. She retired and moved to a daughter's home in 1936. —Anna Mary was known as either "Mother Moses" or "Grandma Moses," and although she first exhibited as "Mrs. Moses," the press dubbed her "Grandma Moses," and the nickname stuck.

By the age of 76, Moses had developed arthritis, which made embroidery painful. Her sister Celestia suggested that painting would be easier for her, and this idea spurred Moses's painting career in her late 70s. When her right hand began to hurt, she switched to her left hand.

What appeared to be an interest in painting at a late age was actually a manifestation of a childhood dream. With no time in her difficult farm-life to pursue painting, she was obliged to set aside her passion to paint. At age 92 she wrote, "I was quite small, my father would get me and my brothers white paper by the sheet. he liked to see us draw pictures, it was a penny a sheet and lasted longer than candy. It was her father's encouragement that fed her passion to paint and this dream was able to manifest later in her life.

In 1950, the National Press Club cited her as one of the five most newsworthy women and the National Association of House Dress Manufacturers honored her as their 1951 Woman of the Year. At age 88, Mademoiselle magazine named Grandma Moses a "Young Woman of the Year. She was awarded two honorary doctoral degrees. The first was bestowed in 1949 from Russell Sage College and the second two years later from the Moore College of Art and Design. President Harry S. Truman presented her with the Women's National Press Club trophy Award for outstanding accomplishment in art in 1949. Jerome Hill directed the 1950 documentary of her life, which was nominated for an Academy Award. In 1952, she published My Life's History, her autobiography. In it she said "I look back on my life like a good day's work, it was done and I feel satisfied with it. I was happy and contented, I knew nothing better and made the best out of what life offered. And life is what we make it, always has been, always will be. In 1955, she appeared as a guest on See It Now, a television program hosted by Edward R. Murrow.

ed note: The largest public collection Grandma Moses' art is located at the Bennington Museum in Bennington, VT

Chirper Chatter...

Tork and Dory Clark's country home acreage property in Morgan Hill caught on fire from sparks flying in from a neighborhood fire. Fortunately, they were able to contain and put out the fire...

Allen Nassau recently had cataract surgery done and now needs reading glasses only. Welcome to the Cataract Survivors Club...

I understand that Janna Standridge and her husband, Lloyd, have been entering their prize creations in the Santa Clara County Fair for many years ostensibly to cover their prize room with all the ribbons they have been accumulating. This year Lloyd added 22 more ribbons, 21 for all the entries he submitted and one for best in the category. Congratulations!...

Here is my update on my Louise: She was discharged from El Camino Hilton on July 31 and admitted to Sunnyvale's Cedar Crest Rehab & Nursing Center. She has been progressing on the plus side very slowly with a few obstacles getting in her way, ie, nausea for few days, urinary tract infection, no bowel movement for 4 days but like a strong trooper she is, she overcame all of that, demonstrated to the PT how well she will conduct herself when the HOME ASSESSMENT was done, and all we will need for now are BED RAILS, SHOWER SEAT and SHOWER HAND RAILS. She was discharged on Sept. 1...

Boo Hoo Hoo...we received a letter of RESIGNATION from Gary & Sue DeLapp to be effective Oct. 1, 2018...

We have another member status change: Tillie Tillman has been having problems with his hip, legs and shoulder. His doctor found blood clots in his leg, so he is on blood thinner and will also go on Leave Of Absence effective Sept. 1, 2018...

Jim Osborne, our caller, came with a bandage on his left ear, no 10 Quart Hat and no Headset Mic. My inquiry turns out that he had some skin removed because of Basal Cell Carcinoma, the most frequently occurring form of skin cancer...

Past member, Sandy Hastings, informed me that her brother passed away and she herself self-ruled not to drive for the time being because of vertigo...

I received word that old member, Katydid's picnic supporter, Walt Fant, died from a fast advancing cancer in the brain, on Tuesday, Sept. 4. Funeral service will be held at St. Simon's Church, 1860 Grant Road, Los Altos at 10:30 AM, Saturday, Sept. 8... Messages of condolence can be sent to Gerry at: 2061 Fallenleaf, Los Altos, CA 94022

A little something about OUR THEMES:

National Grandma Moses Day (Sept. 7)...

If you get a chance, pick up this FLYER and look at the backside for a whole page of interesting tidbits on Grandma Moses. (ed note: it can also be found on pg 4 of this Chirper.)

National Cream Filled Donut Day (Sept. 14)...

National Pecan Cookie Day (Sept. 21)...

Each year on September 21, people across the United States celebrate National Pecan Cookie Day. This delicious cookie can be eaten and enjoyed morning, noon and night by hungry snackers everywhere. Another pecan related celebration is National Pecan Day on April 14. Pecan is an Algonquian word, meaning "a nut requiring a stone to crack". A member of the hickory family, the pecan is native to central and southern United States. To celebrate National Pecan Cookie Day, try one of the following "tried and true" Pecan Cookie recipes:

National Strawberry Cream Pie Day (Sept. 28)...

Each year on September 28 strawberry lovers get to enjoy their favorite fruit in the form of pie on National Strawberry Cream Pie Day.

Whichever you prefer, strawberry cream pie is a delicious treat. To celebrate this food holiday, try one of these recipes and share them with your friends and families:

- Dandans Strawberry Cream Pie
- Taste of Home Strawberry Cream Pie
- Instructables Strawberry Cream Pie

National Do Something Nice Day (Oct. 5)...

Each year on October 5, people across the nation observe National Do Something Nice Day.

National Do Something Nice Day is very similar to National Random Acts of Kindness Day, which is celebrated on February 17. It would be ideal if everyone lived their lives doing kind things on a daily basis and without thinking about it. Today serves as a reminder to us all, as it is easy to get caught up with hectic schedules and fast-paced lifestyles, to stop for a moment and do something nice. The something can be anything from buying a cup of coffee for someone in line at the coffee shop to giving a compliment to the tired clerk. Maybe the day calls for sending flowers with a card that says "just because," or asking the neighbors over for a barbecue in the backyard or mowing the lawn for someone.

"Real generosity is doing something nice for someone who will never find out." ~Frank A. Clark

We have in our membership a top-notch machinist, Don Village, who I am going to ask to make us this RISER so I can reach some of the shelves at our Resurrection Church kitchen.

WANTED:

Chirper editor is looking for articles about your recent travel adventures.

Greetings from Colorado
Don Village
K6PBQ

I was on vacation in Colorado on July 25th thru Aug. 2nd. I was there visiting my twin brother, Rod and sister-in-law Cathy and family in Loveland. We took two side trips while I was there.

Our first trip was in Denver to see the Dead Sea Scrolls exhibit at the Museum. The scrolls were amazing along with a lot of pottery and coins and jewelry that they found...A must see

Our second side trip was going up to Estes Park and on up to the Continental Divide that's just over 12K feet. The scenery was just spectacular with a lot of glaciers.

As you know I'm a ham radio operator. Earlier this year I talked to Chris, WD1W, in Loveland, so Rod and I met with Chris for coffee and a nice visit.

So now I have two Hams to visit when I'm there. The other Ham is Howard, K5WF up the hill from Rod & Cathy.
